Sorin G. Repanovici of Bucharest, Romania receives 2009 Lifetime of Hope Award for lifetime achievements in creating new hope and opportunities for youth.

Rochester, New York, United States of America – 24 July 2009 –
We are pleased to announce Mr. Sorin G. Repanovici of Bucharest, Romania as recipient of the 2009 “Lifetime of Hope” Award. Sorin’s lifetime achievements in creating new hope and opportunities for youth are significant.

Mr. Repanovici has dedicated more than 20 years to youth programs and activities, reaching tens of thousands of people worldwide. In the face of great challenges and political turmoil, his is an amazing story!

Sorin Repanovici was born on 31 March, 1969 in Cernavoda Romania. His higher education includes Journalism and Philosophy, Political Science and Protocol Activities for Governmental Institutions.

He began his career with the Ministry of Youth and Sport with great success as an advisor and expert. He eventually became Chief of Protocol and Security and then moved to become Chief of the Ministry Office. Following this, he moved to the National Commission for Nuclear Activities, again with great success as a Senior Advisor for the International Division, Head of the Physical Protection Section, and Head of the Section for Safeguard, Physical Protection and Special Transport.

Sorin Repanovici’s professional career also includes many international activities and advanced study programs in the United States, Germany, England, France, Austria and Slovakia.

Throughout his career he has repeatedly demonstrated his passion and leadership in creating new hope and opportunities for youth. Sorin has led programs as the President of the National Youth Federation for Prospective Science and Science Fiction in addition to being a Director of the SecRate Foundation, focusing on education through radio and television.
